BZ: Wing marks Op Impact effort

Sara White,
 Managing editor

14 Wing Greenwood marked the team effort of mounting three-plus years of deployed operations February 10.

Everyone involved with Operation Impact, the Canadian Armed Forces' air contribution to the fight against Daesh, was invited to be recognized – together.

"The thing that makes me most proud to be in Greenwood," said Wing Commander Colonel Mike Adamson, "is the sense of community. If you were deployed or if you were helping the deployment, it included everyone – all the people who had to respond to make it happen. This truly was a 'village' effort, and I am extremely proud to be part of the leadership here at 14 Wing. The amount of things we can do here when we work together is extraordinary.

"We know it, and higher headquarters knows it."

crews, plus supporting personnel, from October 2014 through December 2017. With 881 missions flown - representing 7,500 hours and surveillance of over 6,000 points of interest – deployed personnel worked hard, but so did peers at home, with increased demand on administration and technical supports.

"And we still maintained operations here at 14 Wing, with search and rescue happening every day," 404 (Long Range Patrol and Training) Squadron Lieutenant-Colonel Ray Townsend said. "There was no break."

Townsend detailed the tight timeline to ready the first deployed roto, with notice in September 2014 to start the planning: supply, readiness training, medicals, financial procedures, deployment school serials – all under high security.

With the first personnel in Kuwait by mid-October 2014, 14 Wing was making its mark in the Air Task Force headquarters, on intelligence teams, working 24/ 7 on telecommunications and mission support, flying non-stop and moving equipment and supplies.

“We saw new capabilities emerge within 30 days of being in theatre - we were making something out of nothing, making it happen to eliminate the threat so families just like you and I have here at home could go back to their homes,” Townsend said.

The February 10 Bravo Zulu event included a day of family-focussed events – a meal, bowling and a movie, crafts and games; plus the evening’s gathering and a dance. Adamson thanked lead organizer Bill Brown and his team for putting the day together on behalf of the entire defence team, and recognized the attendance of Colonel Iain Huddleston, wing commander in 2014 as 14 Wing stepped up; and Lieutenant-Colonel Luc Vachon, deputy commanding officer of 405 Squadron at the same time.

“When we have such a significant event: the long range patrol detachment is deployed and then comes back, it is only fitting to take time to mark it,” Townsend said. “Our military history, and the ancestors of our squadrons and units who have done operations in the past, did mark their victories, defeats, successes and accomplishments: those honours are all in the showcases here in the Annapolis Mess.

Family events at the Annapolis Mess brought all members of the 14 Wing Greenwood defence team together February 10.

404 Squadron pilot reaches significant flying milestone

Captain David Bernatchez, 404 (Long Range Patrol and Training) Squadron

A crew from 404 (Long Range Patrol and Training) Squadron deployed to CFB Gander, in Newfoundland and Labrador, during the week of January 29 to conduct a series of surveillance patrols over the high seas. Operation Limpid, underlying the deployment, is the Canadian Armed Forces’ routine domestic surveillance and presence in Canada’s air, land, maritime, space and cyber domains.

Captain Mary Cameron-Kelly was the aircraft captain for the deployment. On departure day, after mission completion and while proceeding to recover in Gander, Air Traffic Control (ATC) issued a clearance to fly direct to a named waypoint after a missed approach procedure at St. John’s International Airport. The Newfoundland accent being what it is, it took a couple minutes for the crew to figure out where the controller was directing the aircraft after the approach. Cameron-Kelly, being the proud pilot she is, joked she would find the controller who issued the clearance and have a chat with him.

With the unfavourable weather conditions that hit the Maritimes January 30, the crew had to postpone the mission scheduled for that day. Seizing a last-minute opportunity organized by the hosting wing, a few of the crewmembers were lucky enough to be entertained to a private tour of Nav Canada’s installations in Gander, which house Gander Centre and Gander Oceanic ATC services available for aircraft flying in controlled airspace in Eastern Canada and the Atlantic approach. True to her promises, while on the tour, Cameron-Kelly found the infamous controller who issued her the clearance the previous day, and happily engaged in conversation with him in a jargon - being from Cape Breton herself – the rest of the crew would have been foolish trying to follow.

On the return flight February 2, Cameron-Kelly reached the 7,000-hour flying milestone in the CP140 Aurora, one very few pilots can brag about. She started flying the CP140 in the early 1990s after spending time as an aircraft technician, and has had the chance, during her flying career, to tick-off most of the “to-see” places on her bucket list.

Captain Mary Cameron-Kelly (fourth from right) proudly marks the 7,000-hour Aurora flying milestone, with a new patch presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Bruno Baker.

Cadet competition looking for March 3 volunteers

Five Air Cadet squadrons supported by 14 Wing Greenwood will be participating in a competition at the Fitness & Sports Centre March 2 to 4. The program is looking for volunteers to assist with the following events: Swimming relay – March 3, 7:30 a.m. to noon. Eight volunteers (one for each lane) are needed to time each competitor and watch for penalties. Volleyball – March 3, 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Six volunteers (three per court) are needed to referee. Anyone interested in volunteering may contact Captain Nathan Daley, Nathan.Daley@forces.gc.ca or 902-760-0036. Your assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Serious injury calls out SAR support

February 14, just after 8 a.m., two 14 Wing Greenwood aircraft from 413 (Transport and Rescue) Squadron were tasked by the Halifax Joint Rescue Coordination Centre to assist a fisherman aboard the All or Nothing 1, approximately 40 nautical miles off the coast of Yarmouth. Cormorant Rescue 909 and Hercules Rescue 337, as top cover, flew in aid of 34-year-old man who had reportedly severed his hand on a bait chopper. He was said to be in stable condition as the rescue crews were en route. Upon arrival, SAR-Techs from the Cormorant lowered themselves to the boat, assisted the injured man and hoisted him for transport to a hospital in Halifax.

Sergeant Aaron Evans and Master Corporal Pam Evans are teaming up to create 14 Wing Greenwood-themed art, destined to become wall murals in the renovated Tow Bar. S. White

Combined art effort depicts Greenwood's past, present, people

Sara White, Managing editor

History, heritage – but, most importantly – people. The renovations at 14 Wing Greenwood's social gathering spot, the Tow Bar, are almost complete, ready for a big reveal during Winter Carnival. The intent is to create a unique environment, where Greenwood personnel will feel at "home" with friends. "Hockey sweaters and dart boards don't say 'Greenwood,'" says Sergeant Aaron Evans, busy with his wife, Master Corporal Pam Evans, designing and painting seven large panels that will form a mural in the new-look Tow Bar. Wing Chief Warrant Officer Luc Emond and then Wing Commander Colonel Pat Thauberger kicked the reno off last year with a renaming contest of the space (from the uninspiring "Back Bar") and the donation of a well-used runway tow bar. They made further renovations possible as a gift, marking their command team term. The art and artefacts going into the Tow Bar now reflect everything, from the base's 1942 main gate and the old air traffic control tower to three modern aircraft and people working in their current trades. "We're trying to capture every entity and person on the wing," Aaron says. "Everyone goes to the Mess, and it should represent everyone on the wing. That's what Chief Emond and Colonel Thauberger want the bar to be." Thauberger is now gone, but Emond remains involved in the project. While he's seen most of the sketches the Evans have proposed, they have a few pictorials up their sleeve. The mural panels are leaning against their rec room wall in their Wilmot home, with all the line art done and the painting supply table at hand. "Every chance of free time we get around work, we're on it," says Pam. While Aaron is casually confident they'll make their deadline, Pam admits to a little pressure, knowing what remains to be done. "We might be pulling some all nighters!" The couple painted a mural several years ago in 405 Squadron's lunch room, and

14 Wing women win regional hockey gold

Ryan Melanson,
Trident Staff

The 14 Wing Greenwood Raiders are headed to nationals, after a gold-medal winning victory in the finals of the Canadian Armed Forces Atlantic Regional Hockey Championship.

The Raiders women’s team came away with a 2-1 win over the Gagetown Warriors in the championship game, February 9 at the Flyers’ arena at 12 Wing Shearwater. The big win marks a shakeup in women’s hockey for the Atlantic region: the women’s team from CFB Halifax won regional gold for five straight years heading into the 2018 tournament.

“The whole team’s very excited to be going to nationals. We can’t wait,” said Greenwood team Captain Corporal Hannah DeBoer, after being handed the 2018 Regional Championship banner.

Both of Greenwood’s goals in the final game came from Aviator Brooke Taylor, with assists credited to Major Ilse van Oostrum, Corporal Jessica Bruce and Master Corporal Ashley Barker.

Earlier in the tournament, Greenwood took victories over Halifax (1-0) and Gagetown (4-1) to win a bye through to the final game. The women’s semi featured Gagetown versus Halifax, with Gagetown on top 4-2.

Top contributors for Greenwood through the round-robin portion included Lieutenant Allison Bergenhus with four points from four assists, Aviator Sarah Hardie with three points from two goals and one assist, and van Oostrum with two points from one goal and one assist.

In men’s action, Greenwood took a 4-2 loss in their first game against Halifax. Gagetown won a shootout against Shearwater to come out on the good side of a 6-6 tie. Halifax and Shearwater met in the evening, with Halifax taking a 5-2 win. February 7, the Gagetown men defeated Greenwood 9-3. The Greenwood men took another loss that evening against Shearwater, 4-0, knocking them out of the tournament. Halifax’s men’s team won a shootout to settle a 4-4 tie with Gagetown and earn the bye into the finals. Gagetown and Shearwater played in the semi-final, with Gagetown winning 4-3 to move to the final against Halifax, which Halifax won 6-3.

The CAF National Hockey Championship will take place at CFB Edmonton, with the women’s tournament running from March 5 to 9.

Love is kind (el amor es bondad)

In March, 10 youth from the Kingston to Berwick area are headed on a trip to Alajuela, Costa Rica. While in Costa Rica, they will be helping build a community centre for the local children, as well as going out into the surrounding communities to visit with underprivileged children and their families. It is their hope to learn more about the culture in Costa Rica as well as make lifelong relationships.

Since August 15, the group has raised over $10,000; however, the total cost of the trip will be approximately $22,000. Check out their facebook page, "Annapolis Valley Strong Missions 2018," for updates on their fundraising efforts. Upcoming fundraising events include a roast beef dinner February 21 at the Kingston Legion, and a pancake supper at the Aylesford United Church. Freewill donations will be accepted at the door for both meals. More information on menu, timings and other details may be found at valleyevents.ca.

If you are unable to attend these fundraisers but would like to make a donation, you may e-transfer to avstrongmissions@gmail.com.

development and communications coordinator, will speak on "Who is the VON?" Cancer patients, family and friends or anyone seeking information on cancer or caregiving support is welcome to attend. For information: Lloyd Graham (902-375-2138) or Lynda Pierce (902-765-3055).

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

February 18 - February 24

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20
Keep your eyes on the prize, Aries. Hard work is the key to success, and your hard work will be rewarded in time. This may be a week of transition, so be ready to jump if necessary.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21
There is strength in numbers if you align yourself with the right team, Taurus. Collaboration is the name of the game this week. Jockey for your position, but share the work.

GEMINI - May 22/Jun 21
Gemini, if you are approaching an emotional overload, you will need to schedule time to decompress. Find an activity that relaxes you and delve into that to clear your head.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22
Cancer, you are the eternal optimist this week. As a result, you may not be able to accurately assess all situations. Ask a friend for advice before making any big decisions.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23
Leo, even if you have been relatively good at managing money, you may need to tighten the purse strings for the next few weeks. Financial discipline now will pay dividends later.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22
Contradictions should not surprise you this week, Virgo. Focus on fixing as much as you can while you have an opportunity to do so. It's a big job.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18
Aquarius, a romantic relationship can be taken to a new level when buried desires come to the surface. Give yourself plenty of time to pursue these feelings.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20
Pisces, this is a week when you want to double-check everything that you do. Be sure to dot every "i" and cross every "t." Details matter.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23
Libra, you make friends easily, and this week your social circle figures to expand even further. Embrace this opportunity and enjoy beginning a new relationship.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22
Scorpio, some of your most innovative ideas may be met with lukewarm responses. Do not let this derail your plans. You just need to be a little more persuasive.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21
You are very good at giving others credit, Sagittarius. But this week people may be singing your praises. It's fine to be modest about it, but don't downplay your contributions.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20
Capricorn, do not fear if you seem to be falling out of sync with a close friend. There will be ample opportunities to rekindle the relationship. Right now you may need a breather.

Family Literacy Day was a success! The library and the Military Family Resource Centre co-hosted a reading event February 6. We would like to send a big thank you to Colonel Mike Adamson and Senior Manager PSP Mike Taylor for reading to our eager group of youngsters. S. White

14 Wing Library | Serving those who read

Judy McCool & Stephanie Bannister, 14 Wing Greenwood Library

February is African Heritage Month. One of the highlighted books at the 14 Wing Greenwood Library is “From Midnight To Dawn.” The Underground Railroad was the passage to freedom for many slaves, but it was rife with dangers. While there were dedicated conductors and safe houses, there were also arduous nights in the mountains and days in threatening towns. For those who made it to Midnight, the code name given to Detroit, the Detroit River became their Jordan. And Canada became the Promised Land, where they could live freely in black settlements, one known as Dawn, under the protection of British law. This book presents the men and women who established the railroad, and the people who traveled it. Some are well known, like Harriet Tubman and John Brown, but there are equally heroic, less familiar figures here as well. The book evokes the turmoil and controversies of the time, including the furor over Uncle Tom’s Cabin, congressional confrontations in Washington and fierce disputes among black settlers in Canada.

Also in February, check out the author spotlight, on Lisa Gardner; and the Pyeongchang Olympic display.

New books for February include “The Great Alone,” by Kristin Hannah; “Look for me,” by Lisa Gardner; “Sunburn,” by Laura Lippman; “Death in dark,” by J.D. Robb; “Ruthless,” by Lisa Jackson; “Surprise me,” by Sophie Kinsella; “Fire and Fury: Inside the Trump White House,” by Michael Wolff; and “The Rainbow Comes and Goes,” by Anderson Cooper and Gloria Vanderbilt.

The Friends of the Greenwood Library Society fundraising paint afternoon is February 24 at 2 p.m. Tickets are available at the library desk.

The library’s adult book club meets the first Monday of the month, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. This month’s book is “Fifteen Dogs.”

“Under The Story Tree” is every Tuesday, 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., in the library. It is a great time to bring your youngsters to listen to stories, sing songs and make crafts.

The library’s catalogue is available online, at opac.libraryworld.com. The log in name is “14 Wing Library.” No password is required.

The 14 Wing Greenwood Library is open to all military members, and as well as the public. The library is located in the AV Morfee Centre on School Road, in Greenwood.

Reading opens doors, so come and open the doors to the 14 Wing Greenwood Library!
